| Monday, April 4th
@ Sixth and I Synagogue, 606 I St, NW
Two blocks from Chinatown Metro station | Tuesday, April 5th
@ WDCJCC, 1529 16th St, NW
four blocks from Dupont Metro (north exit) | Wednesday, April 6th
@ Sixth and I Synagogue, 606 I St, NW
Two blocks from Chinatown Metro station |
|---|---|---|
| Haggadah Basics, 6:45-8:00 PM
$20 members, $25 non-members
Let my people know! The Seder is about telling the story of the exodus from Egypt, but what are the messages of the Haggadah? In this class, you will learn the structure and components of the Haggadah, as well as variations you can use to make the text more meaningful.
This class is built for beginners as well as those who want to deepen their understanding of the Seder and holiday.
*Sybil Wolin has made a Haggadah for her family every year for the past 28 years.
She is a member of Adas Israel and a founder of the Family and Children's High Holiday Service.
Sybil last taught Make Your Own Haggadah in March 2004.* | Seder Plate Making, 7:00-8:15 PM
$35 members, $40 non-members
Why is this plate different from all other plates?
Embrace your artistic impulses and make your Seder table even more special with a one-of-a-kind Seder plate.
We will provide the materials and guidance, you can bring your design ideas for your masterpiece.
The plates will be food-safe, dishwasher-safe, and Maror-safe.
Judybeth Greene is an artist (see Judybeth.com) and an attorney whose works on Judaic, political and secular themes have appeared in local galleries, restaurants, and religious institutions. | The Iron Kosher Chef, 7-9:00 PM,
$50 gen. admission, $72 front row
Get ready to see matzah meal and schmaltz fly when the best kosher chefs in Metro DC gather for a culinary battle that will determine who makes the best matzah ball in town.
Challenging Chefs:
• German Chavez from Katz’s Koshermart
• Rosa Moreno from Krupin’s
• Lea Mendelsohn from Red Heifer, representing Daniel Oran
Celebrity Judges:
• Douglas Jemal, Sixth and I Historic Synagogue founder
• Joan Nathan, award-winning cookbook writer
• Marc Fisher, Washington Post columnist
Emcee: Aviva Kempner, filmmaker
The Chairman: Ari Roth, Director of Theater J
No matter who earns the title of Iron Kosher Chef, the audience wins and will taste the results, along with delicious kosher appetizers and drinks.
This event is limited to 60 people.
Beyond Manischewitz: What wine goes with gefilte fish? 8:15-9:45 PM
$25 members, $35 non-members
We have to drink four glasses of wine at the Seder, so why not make it good wine?
Join us for an introduction to the fine kosher wines of Israel, France, and the United States.
This class will include a brief introduction to wine tasting, a discussion concerning what makes a wine kosher and a tasting of six wines (both white and red) to serve at your Seder.
*Scott Berg is a former restaurateur, wine collector and enthusiast.
He last taught Kosher Cooking Round the World (and Wine, too) in Fall 2004.* | Four Questions, Four Sons, 7:30-9:30 PM
$20 members, $25 non-members
If the four questions were so important, why does the Haggadah not answer them simply and straightforwardly for the child?
Where are the real answers to these questions and why does the Haggadah never reveal why we lean on Passover or dip Maror in Charoset?
As for the four sons, we will explore how the same verse can serve as an answer both for the evil son and the son who doesn’t know how to ask; we will look at the biblical verses that give rise to the four sons and explore why the Haggadah adopted some verses and modified others; and what really differentiates the sons.
*Baruch Weiss is currently Associate General Counsel at the Department of Homeland Security.
He has a M.A. in Talmud, and has been teaching Talmud and Judaica for over 20 years.* | Jewish Study Center
Pre-Passover 2005
RSVP at 202-498-8365, jewishsc@starpower.net
www.jewishstudycenter.org |
Stay tuned for the spring semester, starting May 2, 2005!

The Best of Tradition in an informal setting...
The Jewish Study Center is an independent nonprofit center for adult Jewish education in the Washington D.C. area. Founded in 1978, it has a reputation for teaching and learning in an open, participatory environment. Engage with traditional texts and topics, contemporary Jewish culture and concerns, and faculty from across the community. We welcome teachers and students of all backgrounds.

Sign up for classes: JSC Pre-Passover 2005

Name: ______________________________
Address: ____________________________
City, State, Zip: _____________________
Daytime Phone: ______________________
Email: ______________________________
Course name: ________________________
__________________________________

I pay discounted rates as a member of:
___ JSC ___ DCJCC ___ Adas ___ Fabrangen

Become a Jewish Study Center member:
$36 individual, $72 household $____

I’ll support the JSC with a donation $____
TOTAL ENCLOSED: $____

To RSVP, call us at 202-248-8810, email us at Jewishsc@starpower.net,
or mail this to: 3547 Brandywine St, NW
Washington DC 20008

Let my people go... to class.

Monday at Sixth and I Synagogue
• Haggadah Basics
• Beyond Manischewitz: Kosher wine tasting

Tuesday at the WDCJCC
• Seder Plate Making
• Four Questions, Four Sons

Wednesday at Sixth and I Synagogue
• The Iron Kosher Chef

Please RSVP at jewishsc@starpower.net
or call (202) 248-8810